Let us pray…

For those who are sick and suffering…
Paul Markby, Martin Pett, Sonia Tann, Ann Washer, Aniko Williams

For those who are grieving…
Family & Friends of… Roger Boulter (Paul's father)

Ideas to guide and ignite your prayers this fortnight:

- Praise and pray for Ellie as she takes up her responsibilities as Children, Youth and Families Minister
- Pray for our church leaders as they seek to listen to the Lord and lead and guide us as a church
- Pray for safety, good fun and the building of fruitful relationships at The Big Night In
- For teachers and all who work in our schools, that they will be refreshed over the half-term holiday
- For prisoners being released early, and for those helping them to find suitable accommodation and work
- That the Lord will touch and heal those known to us who are struggling with mental health issues
- For the people of Ukraine, facing yet another winter under wartime conditions
- Pray for those who have suffered in our recent storms, giving thanks for the emergency services and others who have helped them
- That we may remember the privilege and responsibility we have to proclaim the Kingdom of God

'. . . the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost.'
(Luke 19:10)

TRINITY PRESERVES: The sale of jars at the Harvest service raised £360. Payments of half that sum have been made to Lisa Buyinza and to Landport Foodbank.
